

STARS IN SWIM MEET AT Y. M. C. A.

The anniversary swimming meet Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. tank promises to be one of the interesting events of the semi-centennial celebration of the Honolulu "Y." ▲ program of 11 events has been arranged by the committee in charge.

A diving exhibition will be a big feature. Bob Fuller, Lorrin Thurston and Jack Hiorth are expert divers, who have accepted the invitation to participate. Duke Kahanamoku will show some classy exhibition work.

Dad Center of the Outrigger club and Miss Marjorie Capps of Palama settlement are arranging for swimming features. Miss Capps will enter the Palama Midgets in a special race. There will be a 100 yard swim, a 220 yard swim and a relay race arranged by the Outrigger men.

The charter members race between Judge Dole and W. R. Castle will be a special attraction. Courtesies have been extended to Allan Herbert, who will enter with the approval of both original contestants.
