

Strangers in Honolulu are particularly attracted by the rest room of the Outrigger Canoe club, where are displayed several outrigger canoes, all varnished and veneered for the occasion and a score of handsome trophies which the organization has won in aquatic competitions at various times.