

OUTRIGGER CLUB CASTING ABOUT FOR NEW HOME

In spite of greatly decreased membership due to the war, reports of the officers of the Outrigger Canoe club, at a meeting held in the auditorium of the Library of Hawaii last night show that during the year just closed the club has wiped out a substantial deficit, put $550 into the sinking fund and has $1096.21 to its credit. Of this amount the pavilion brought in $1327.

Election of officers for the present year, and discussion of plans for a future home of the club, possibly in a different location, took up the major portion of the time of the meeting. In spite of his expressed determination not to serve again, Warren Deane was reelected president of the club. D. E. Mooney is vice president, F. C. Bailey treasurer, Allan Podmore secretary, David Center captain, P. G. H. Deverill and C. H. Atherton trustees.

With the expiration of the present lease of the club, it is thought that it may be necessary to move the club quarters to another location. It was proposed that the new location be bought outright, and looking to the feasibility of this project, President Deane was authorized to appoint an investigating committee. This committee will report to the board of directors one month before the next annual meeting. The matter of providing additional bathhouse space for returning members was taken up at length, as was the matter of building other needed houses about the grounds. The total membership of the club, including senior, junior, service and non-resident members, is in excess of 700.
