Sixty-four - Year-Old Walker Among Those Who Will Contest For the Prizes

All that is now lacking for the annual Kalakaua Avenue walk on Labor Day—next Monday—is the starter's pistol shot to get the men going down the two-mile distance from the intersection of South King Street to the finishing point in front of the Moana Hotel, Waikiki.

The toe-and-heel classic will be started at 3 o'clock, but officials and entries are to be on hand at the starting point at 2:30 o'clock. The police department will have two motorcycle officers detailed to clear one side of Kalakaua Avenue for the race.

The men will be given a rubdown at the Outrigger Canoe Club and the members of the Women's Auxiliary will provide refreshments to the competing athletes and officials after the race. Prizes will be awarded at this time.

Entry Limit Extended

In order to give Schofield Barracks and other posts a chance to send in their entries, closing of entries for the annual walk will be at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the club rooms at the Pan-Pacific Building in the grounds of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A.

The junior event has been called off this year, owing to the Boy Scouts being in camp when the walk is held.
