

Bill Inman, noted all round athlete, has been chosen by the Outrigger Canoe club's sports committee to gather in all the leading football players in the city for the purpose of starting an Outrigger gridiron squad for the coming season under the auspices of the Oahu-Service Athletic league. The club has also voted an appropriation of $500 for preliminary expenses.

Over a dozen of the island's best performers have been signed up by the club and Bill Inman is now scouring the city for some "dark horses" who are said to have had considerable experience on the mainland and who are at the present time located in Hawaii. The team will be made up of former players on the 1st Hawaiian Infantry team who are now discharged from the army. Followers of the game will be watching this team with keen interest as the following players who have been signed up are all stars: Pat O'Sullivan, F. Rodrigues, Bob Mahiko, Gilbert Canario, H. McInerny, L. E. Stephens, Bill Paty, Claude King, Gilbert Brown, Homer Lydgate, Bill Inman, Herman von Holt, G. Ballentyne, Jim Hart, Ezra Crane, Harold Harvey and others.
