

OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB STARS OUT OF AQUATIC MEET

Blanche Fernandez is ill and "Babe" Dowsett cannot get going on her former style

George "Dad" Center of the Outrigger Canoe club is busy these days developing a lot of "dark horses" for the fall swimming meet. The Waikiki beach captain had figured on his two former stars, Blanche Fernandez and Marion "Babe" Dowsett, but both of these girls are out of it. Miss Fernandez has been ill in bed for three weeks and will be unable to enter the meet. Miss Dowsett has not been able to hit the stride that she usually shows, and to all accounts will not enter the fall swimming meet.

The Outrigger Canoe club's colors will be carried by Gerd Hiorth in the hundred yards, and the fair-haired little swimmer has developed so well in the past few months that "Dad" Center is banking on her to cop the laurels. Miss Hiorth has been a "hard-luck" swimmer in the past in that the odds have always been against her. But it's a long lane that has no turning, and "Dad" is confident that Miss Hiorth will pull away from them all in the hundred this meet.

"I have a lot of new material that I am developing, but I cannot begin to pick and choose yet," remarked the Outrigger boss when asked for the names of the new swimmers he is making.

The fall swimming meet committee in session last night received the following suggested list of officials for the big session on October 30, 31 and November 1:
