

WILL HARRIS IN TRAINING TOGS

Honolulu swimming fans will get their first opportunity of seeing one of the best Far Eastern swimming champions in action in the Fall Swimming meet, October 30, 31 and November 1 in the person of Will Harris, now of the Outrigger Canoe club.

Though Harris is an island boy, he returned to Honolulu after spending the larger part of his life in Manila. Representing Manila, he cleaned up everything in the Far East in the way of swimming.

In Shanghai in one day he won eleven medals, entering and winning the 50 yards, the century, the 220 yards, the 440 yards, breast stroke, back stroke and the relay.

He has already started training and will be entered in the century and the 220 yards. Warren Kealoha will have a real opponent in Harris for the former Far Eastern star has been dropping his surplus weight in a hurry in an effort to get into condition for the races.

"Dad" Center is looking forward to Harris adding luster to the Outrigger Canoe club's roll of fame. Harris is training faithfully every night. He has made the century in 55 flat which is fast work.
