

Aviators and Schofield Men to Battle At Inland Post This Coming Saturday

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Nov. 6.—The Post Football team of Schofield Barracks will play its initial game of the gridiron season against the Luke Field eleven at 2:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon on the Schofield grounds. This game had been originally scheduled for Thanksgiving Day. Officials for Saturday's game will be Zimmerman, referee; Kahlbaum, umpire; Jeffords, linesman.

Some of the games which were supposed to have been matched were changed and the following dates are announced officially: On November 15 the College of Hawaii will play the Post team at Honolulu; on November 22 the Post team will play the Outrigger club at Schofield Barracks; on November 29 Fort Kamehameha will play the Post team at Schofield. The game which will be played on the 22nd at Schofield with the Outrigger club will start at 3 p. m. The officials of the Post team are trying to get a special train which will leave Honolulu in the afternoon for Schofield to bring out all of the football fans of Honolulu.

This train is expected to leave about 1:15 p. m., and it will be parked immediately in the rear of the Castner Y. M. C. A. at Schofield Barracks, which will be only a five-minute walk to the grounds. Tickets for the game will be on sale in Honolulu by the Outrigger club, E. O. Hall & Son, the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A., the War Camp Community service and the Young hotel.

Every man in the post is backing his eleven to a finish and feels that they will win. Every one is looking eagerly forward to the first game the 15th of next month and feel that if they defeat the College of Hawaii they will be undoubtedly successful in the other games.

SPEEDY BASKET SERVED TO FANS

The Pals and the Athletics took defeat last night at the Y. M. C. A. games hall from the G. R.'s and the Grays. The Pals' game with the G. R.s was 23 to 53 for the G. R.s. The second game went to the Grays to the tune of 28-44. Both losing teams played a fast fighting game in the first quarter, but by the half both winners had taken a definite lead that the losers could not cover. Hee and Canario did the scoring for G. R.s, and for the Grays, Saruhashi and the Chung boys. Officials: John Gomes, referee; Meinecke, umpire; Pease, timer; Smith, scorer. The detail of points:
