

HAWAII WARRIORS PREDICT DEFEAT FOR WAIKIKIANS

Crawford Will Put Regular Line- Up In Game At Moiliili Tomorrow

When it comes to hard, grinding training, there isn't a football eleven in the vicinity of Honolulu which has anything on the College of Hawaii boys whom Coach D. L. Crawford is whipping into shape for the return match with the strong Beachcombers tomorrow afternoon at Moiliili Field.

Recently Crawford's proteges had a scrim with the Punahou warriors and were put up against the toughest propositions that Crawford could devise for them.

Crawford intends to put in his regular lineup against the Outrigger crowd and in view of the rumors that Bill Inman is working far into the night with his warriors, the C. of H. leader is leaving no stone unturned to fit his crew for the fray.

There is plenty of confidence up in Manoa Valley as to the outcome of tomorrow's game, which will be the principal attraction of the local football world. As the tie of 6-6 in last Saturday's game with the Surfriders has shown that they are not to be despised, a real gridiron battle is looked forward to by the football fans.
