

No Funds For Beach—Members of the board of harbor commissioners voted yesterday to inform the Outrigger Canoe club that it has no funds with which to take over the maintenance of the diving stands and other apparatus at Waikiki beach which is kept up by the club but used by the general public. The board, however, will take up the matter with the supervisors to ascertain whether that body can finance the maintenance.

---