

TOWN

The entire gate receipts will be at stake when the Outrigger and Town team elevens clash tomorrow afternoon at Moiliili field. The game will commence at 3 o'clock sharp.

It was decided between the manager of the two teams that the final and third game should have a suitable inducement. The result was that both heads agreed to play for the entire gate receipts. It means that both clubs will try their hardest and it assures the fans of a real battle.

The Town team held its final practise yesterday while the Outrigger Canoe club laid off work two days ago. Coach "Big Bill" Inman reported the Outrigger team in good shape for the battle and "Scotty" Schuman announced this morning that the Townies felt confident of winning.

Rodrigues will play left end, Herman Clark will be at left tackle and Morgan will play at left guard. W. Clark will play at center. Robinson will be at right guard and Aylett will play right tackle. Among will play right end. Makalena will play quarter with Crabbe at left half and Thurston at right half. Aarona will be at fullback and Rosa and Schuman will be in the reserves.

The Outrigger team will have Thompson at right end, Fuller at right tackle and O'Sullivan at right guard. Anderson will be at center. King will play left guard, Kahanamoku left tackle and W. Thompson at left end. Spencer will be a quarter and Searle at left half and Stickney at right half. Canario will play fullback with Hoopi and Brown on the reserve list.