

Clubs Construct New Locker Facilities

Work on the new locker rooms for Outrigger Canoe Club is nearly complete and members are looking forward to a relief from the cramped conditions which have prevailed for some time. Another job of construction for a local club is the locker layout being installed at the Oahu Country Club where an expenditure of over $2,000 is contemplated.