

OUTRIGGERS WILL ELECT AT MEETING THIS WEEK

List of Candidates Indicates a Spirited Contest For Some Offices

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Outrigger Canoe Club will be held on the evening of Thursday, July 22, at 8 p. m. at the Library of Hawaii.

Much interest is being shown in the coming elections and hot contests in most instances are expected. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

Nominations made to date are as follows:

For president, Warren Dease, R. A. McNally. (Mr. McNally intends to withdraw his name owing to pressure of other business.)

For vice president, Dan E. Mooney, present incumbent; George H. Angus.

For secretary, Allan Podmore, present incumbent; Watson Ballentyne.

For treasurer, F. C. Bailey, Ernest Clark.

For Captain, George D. ("Dad") Center. No other nominee. Mr. Center is the present incumbent.

For chairman of the house committee, S. M. Starratt, present incumbent; Esmond Parker.

For chairman of the order and entertainment committee, Henry A. Asch, present incumbent; A. H. (Bert) Tarleton.

For directors (two new ones to be elected): Charles C. Graves, Clarence F. Waterman, Clifton S. Goodnight, P. G. H. Deverill, present director.