

WEEK-END PROGRAM OF FOOTBALL WILL BRING JOY TO ALL GAME'S FOLLOWERS

Outrigger and Varsity On Saturday and Palama With Waikikis On Sunday

Saturday the Outrigger club and the University of Hawaii tangle in the third game of the island series. Sunday brings the Palama aggregation up against the fast Waikikis.

Saturday's game will be an interesting one, for both teams are fast and are evenly matched. The Varsity uses a more open style of play than the Canoemen and is a trifle faster but the beachcombers, too, are speedy and have a strong line beside. As far as comparisons go both teams have stone-wall defenses against line bucks. From end to end they are about even. In the backfield the Varsity seems to have the decided edge of it. The Outrigger backs in Sunday's game didn't advance the ball or play together as the Varsity men did in their game last week. Unless the Withington men add some new plays to their list the Collegians will have the best of it there too for they have a stack of plays that are hard to best and they have mastered them in practice. They proved this on Saturday, when they unfolded a packet of bewildering plays on the Pals. However, when it is all summed up, the game should be close and interesting and if one team has the advantage in a certain department, the other comes right back in another.

Wacs Picked

The Sunday contest should go to the Wacs since they play a style of football that is hard to beat. Gilman has taught his men how to carry out his plans, and it will take a lot of real maneuvering to out general the Wacs. Should Aaron get back into the game, as is possible, they will be even stronger on the offensive than they were on Sunday. Gilman will add a great deal to the Palama burden with his wonderful punting. The Pals will no doubt rely on Captain "Dusky" Brash to carry them on to victory. Bromley will get in again and the team should be strengthened by his return. His punts are nearly as good as Gilman's. It should develop into a punting duel between the two if the game is at all close. However, as things look now, although the Pals will put up a mighty stiff argument, the Wacs seem to have the better of the affair—on paper. The real outcome will be decided for good and all on Sunday.

Dope Stuff

How they will stand this week-end:

	W.	L.	Pct.	Win	Lose
Univ. Hawaii ...	1	0	1.000	1.000	.500
Waikiki	1	0	1.000	1.000	.500
Outrigger	0	1	.000	.500	.000
Palamas	0	1	.000	.500	.000