

ONE of the line-smashes in yesterday's game between the Outrigger and University elevens. Neither team has any particular advantage. The University line held well against its heavier opponents. This play, as will be seen by the bleachers in the background, occurred in midfield.

