

SIX TEAMS ENTER FOR SOCCER PLAY

Season Will Open January 8,
With Schedule of 30 Games:
Old-Timers Assist

Six teams will compose the Honolulu Soccer Association, organized at a meeting at the Commercial club last night.

The following were representatives of clubs, with the teams they entered: R. W. Thacker, Schofield Service club; William Bell, proxy for Alex Ross, National Guard; Thomas Muirhead, Rangers; Fred C. Bailey, Outrigger Canoe club; Geordie Low, Healani Yacht and Boat club, and G. R. Virgo, Palama Settlement.

A. C. Hickman and Jock Simpson, old-time soccer players, volunteered to coach the National Guard and Palama Settlement teams, respectively. Members of these teams are new to soccer, and the coaches will help them get on par with the most experienced organizations.

The representatives of the six teams agreed to play a two-round series comprising a schedule of 30 games all told. The schedule will be published soon. The session opens January 8.

A feature of the meeting was the readiness with which the elder teams agreed to stand drafts of players to strengthen the other teams, the drafts to be made by the executive committee of the association.

The executive committee is composed of William Bell, president; J. M. Macconnell, vice-president; and S. J. C. Todd, secretary; with Bob Anderson and J. C. McGill.

The matter of entertaining visiting teams, playing off a cup tie series and games against teams from other islands for the Kennedy and Harrison cups was left over for attention until after the season is under way.
