

Tank Records Made At Swimming Meet

WARREN KEALOHA, Hui Makani, set a new world tank record for the 100 yards back-stroke. Time 1:06.2, breaking his own mark of 1:07.1 made in Detroit in October by four-fifths of a second and breaking the Hawaiian tank record of 1:08.1 made by "Stubby" Kruger last April.

MARIECHEN WEHSELAU, Outrigger club, set a new Hawaiian tank mark in the 100 yards women's open. Time 1:09.2, breaking her own tank mark of 1:11.4 made in October by two and two-fifths seconds.

DUKE P. KAHANAMOKU, Outrigger club, set a new Hawaiian tank record for the 50 yards men's open. Time :24.2, breaking the Hawaiian tank record of :25.2 made by Ah Kin Yee in December 1919 by a full second.

SAM KAHANAMOKU, Hui Nalu, set a new Hawaiian tank record for the 100 yards men's breaststroke. Time 1:17, breaking the Hawaiian tank record of 1:19.4 made by George Kane in December, 1919, by two and four-fifths seconds.

GEORGE KANE, Pearl Harbor, set a new Hawaiian tank record for the 100 yards service. Time 1.03.2, breaking the record of 1:05.3 made by Sylvester Granrose in December, 1919, by two and one-fifths seconds.

OUTRIGGER RELAY TEAM, four men, 60 yards each, set a new Hawaiian tank record. Time 2:58.2, breaking the record of 3:15.4 made by the same club in December, 1919.