

BASKET SERIES WILL BOOST GAME ON OAHU

Local basketball fans are looking forward to the two big basketball games to be staged next week at the National Guard armory when the University of Nevada five will meet local teams.

This will be the first opportunity for local fans to compare the ability of island players with that of the mainland. In view of the fact that Nevada won the Pacific coast conference title last year, the dope sheet will be filled with figures as soon as the results of the two games are known.

The Outrigger team which meets the victors first is rated as one of the strongest teams ever developed in the islands. The National Guard team won the championship last year under the title of Waikikis.

These games will give the local basketball season a big boost. At the end of the season it is expected Hilo and Maui will send over its championship teams for a try at the island title.
