Marines and Outriggers To Meet At Westervelt Tank

Definite assurances have been received by the committee in charge of the big swimming carnival to be staged at the Westervelt tank at the Nuuanu "Y" on August 28 that the Marines and Outrigger Canoe Club relay teams will take part.

The Marines won the recent Pearl Harbor swimming meet while the Outrigger Canoe Club relay teams are famous in local aquatic history. George ("Dad") Center will be hard put to find sufficient talent, however, during this vacation period and the Marines stand a good chance of winning.

It had been hoped to have the Olympic swimming team take part in the meet, but it became known yesterday that the team would not return until September.
