

Girl Stars To Try For Swanzy Cup

Mariechen and Others of Local Talent Will Compete

Young women swimmers who will try for the Swanzy cup this year are: Mariechen Wehselau our own Olympic star, Leilehua Judd, Dorothy Waters and Pauline Laird.

Miss Wehselau will defend her title to two of the championships and has taken more interest in diving this year so should be well up in that. With her increased weight she should easily lead in the plunge too.

The 50 yards backstroke however is the one event she will have to exert herself in for although Lillie Bomer, the title and record holder is not entering, it is conceded that there are others that will press even this versatile swimmer.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Dawkins Benny Co., Fort street, and general admission will be on sale at the gate on Friday evening from 7 p. m.
