

SWIMMERS IN OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB THANKSGIVING DAY RACES

Here are the swimmers who took part in the Thanksgiving Day surf swims of the Outrigger Canoe Club.

Upper left—Girls who swam in the women's novice race from Cunha's surf. Back row, left to right, M. Morang and Anna Douvan. Front row, left to right, Lailahus Judd who won and Eleanor Bickerton.

Upper center—Two entrants who took part in the women's open swim from Public Baths, Mariechen Wehselau, who won, on the left and Pauline Laird on the right.

Upper right—The four in the men's open race from Castle's surf. Left to right, A. E. Minvielle, Jr., who won, H. Hill, Fred Reeder and Gay Harris.

Lower left—Those who took part in the race from Public Baths for boys under 18 years. Back row, T. Ellis, K. Makinney, the winner, and H. Vierra. Front row, Eddie Heller, G. Smith and T. Gillis.

Lower center—In the race for boys under 16 years from Cunha's surf were Benton Wood, who won, Wilfred Paul and Alfred Hess.

Lower right—Those who swam in the race from Public Baths for men over 30 years of age. Left to right, A. R. Tulloch, Bob Askew, the winner, and Russell Lowell Richards. Photos by Star-Bulletin staff photographer.

SNAPPY KAYO IN MAIN BOUT LAST NIGHT AT POST

SCHOFFIELD BARRACKS, Nov. 23.—After less than one minute of

TWO WIDE AND ONE CLOSE AT SHAFTER

Three games in all were played at Fort Shafter basketball league last night. H. Battery 64th beat 1st Bn. Hdq. 65th by a score of 49-27. In the second game Service Battery beat 2nd Bn. Hdq. 33-23. In the third game Hdq. 65th lost to Signal Co. 49-5. Try and Capt. F. F. Sharpless, 11th Tank Company, judged the scraps. Cpl. C. A. Mulligan, 1st Gas Regiment, told the fans about it in his

ENGINEERS STAGE ONE SNAPPY CARD

The 2d Engineers staged a smoker last night at Schofield. The best event was between Laskin and Carter, which went to a draw. In the main bout Redd knocked out Cooper in the first round. Saunders scored a technical kayo over Nesky, who failed to answer the bell in the fourth. Rain and Miller battled to a draw, Novak and Lapointe tied. McQuire went out in the second round with Martin. Reed and Sales went to a draw in the

DRAKE MEN ASKED TO HELP WELCOME

All alumnus of Drake and who reside in Honolulu are to get in touch with A. C. I. of Castle & Cooke in order to prepare a suitable welcome for Sid Nichols and Assistant Oak Smith, former Drake men, who arrive here Tuesday with the dental college football team from the University of Hawaii. Smith is a Gamma Sigma man and all the members of the fraternity also are asked to