

Todd Named As Head Of 1924 Soccer Outfit

S. J. C. Todd was elected president of the Honolulu Soccer football association at the meeting held last evening. George Low, well known as one of the leading promoters of the game in the islands, was named vice president. J. Morita of the Nuuanu Y. M. C. A. was selected as secretary and treasurer for the coming year. Robert Anderson and Captain George Bower. The first game takes place on Makini pitch on January 17, and the next meeting of the league is to be held on January 7. Three teams are entered in the league schedule already. They are the Rangers, Palamas and Marines. The Outrigger Canoe Club and the University of Hawaii are expected to enter before the lists are closed.