

University Team Loses to Vagabonds

Sugar Lads Go Down After Making Good Showing, 15-10, 15-8

U. H. IS OUTCLASSED

Beaten, 15-3, 15-4; Kraft, Coombs Big Stars For Vags

OUTRIGGER Canoe Club and the Vagabonds emerged victorious from their initial matches in the ASUH Volleyball league last night at the University gymnasium before a fair gathering of fans.

Outrigger defeated Alea, 15-10, 15-8. The Vagabonds outclassed the University of Hawaii, 15-3, 15-4.

Alea played brilliantly at the outset of the match and led, 6-3, but led by Janda and Chiswick the Outrigger sextet got its vaunted attack underway and soon overhauled the sugar lads' advantage.

The seashore clubmen continued to launch a vigorous attack during the remainder of the initial set and won at 15-10.

WIN SECOND SET

Outrigger played better ball as the match progressed and won the second set handily to clinch victory.

While Janda and Chiswick played well for Outrigger, Tommy Hayselden was outstanding for the Alea squad.

Before the vicious slamming of Earl Kraft and F. Coombs, the University of Hawaii proved no match for the Vagabonds. The score is a good indication of the difference in the caliber of games put up by the two teams.

W. Nobriga played a good game for the Vagabonds. He fed both Kraft and Coombs well for points.
