

Pearl Harbor Civilians Overwhelm Police Team In ASUH League Tussle

Pedro, Keliikipi, Akau Slam Hard To Bring Victory To Shippers, 15-12, 15-12—Outrigger Sets Pace Early In Both Sets — Civilians Win

THE MATSON A. C. volleyball aggregation scored another great victory in the ASUH League last night at the U. H. gymnasium when it defeated the Outrigger Canoe Club team, in a bitterly contested match.

The score was 15-12, 15-12.

In the other match, the Pearl Harbor Civilians won from the Police 15-1, 15-9.

Cricket Team to Spend Day Here Monday

Members of the English Cricket team will pause in Honolulu Monday on their way home from Australia. They will arrive on the Mariposa and will leave the same afternoon.

D. C. Lindsay and Robert Anderson have planned a program of entertainment for the visitors. Other local cricketers who would like to aid in the entertainment are asked to get in touch with either Lindsay or Anderson.

The English stars are on their way home for the opening of their own season next month.

The Outrigger Canoe Club put up a great fight against the Matsons. They led, 10-5 at one stage of the first set and 12-4 in the second set, but each time they could not sustain their advantage, being virtually blasted off the courts by the smashes of Pedro, Keliikipi and Akau.

It was easily the best match of the week.

Outrigger, although defeated, put a well balanced team on the court. The most outstanding player, however, was Beckert whose southpaw slamming did heavy damage to the Matsons.

Braun, Loughmiller, and Cahill played brilliantly for the Pearl Harborites, as the Police were routed in the curtain raiser.

Beaten 15-1 in the first set, the Police made a game attempt to win the second set, but they were unable to break through the strong offensive game of the Pearl Harborites.
