OVERWHELMING the Apollos, the Matsons kept their record in the ASUH Volleyball league unblemished last night at the University of Hawaii gymnasium.

Displaying amazing superiority over their rivals, the Shippers triumphed, 15-4, 15-5.

By virtue of the victory, the Matsons are still sharing the leadership in the championship race with the Vagabonds, who, too, are still undefeated.

Despite the fact that they were overwhelmed, the Apollos put up a good game, blocking well and picking up again and again the vaunted slams of the Matsons.

DISPLAY GREAT FORM

The Shippers, coached by Manuel Ferreira, played a spectacular game. They were in good form and performed well nigh perfectly not only on offense but also on defense.

Kelikipi, Wong and Hansen stood out for the Shippers, with Shea, Sonny Lee and Larry Akau turning in their usual steady game.

For the losers, Shong, Dan Puualoa, and Brown played well.

In a brilliantly fought three-set match, the Aieas defeated the Police, 15-10, 10-15, 15-10.

Great playing by Fujita and Keone gave the Aieas the first set which was vigorously contested. Both teams were playing spectacularly to thrill the gathering.

AIEAS START CLICKING

The Police made a good comeback in the second set and won at 15-10. They continued their brilliant game in the third set to lead, but Sam Toomey's boys started clicking with the insertion of Meyer, Tom Hayselden and Clarke into the game, and
