MATSON A. C. kept their record unblemished in the ASUH Volleyball league as they annexed their fifth consecutive victory of the season last night at the University gym by taking the measure of the Police, 15-4, 15-5.

In the other game, the Outrigger Canoe club won a hard fought three set match from the Apollos, 12-15, 15-5, 20-18.

The Matsons will hook up with the Vagabonds tonight in the first game at 7:30 and in the nightcap, the Police will stack up against the Outriggers. The Matson-Vagabonds battle is expected to develop into a vicious affair.

WIN EASILY

Led by Keliikipi, Pedro and Hansen, the Matsons won an easy victory. The Police were unable to match the great playing of the Shippers and went down in straight sets.

The Outrigger-Apollo game was hard fought from start to finish. In the first set, the Outriggers established an early lead of 5-1, but the Apollos made a sweeping comeback for a 15-12 victory. Brilliant playing by Parker and Bechert helped Outrigger to win the second set at 15-5.

The third set was a terrific battle all the way. Despite the fact that they encountered stiff opposition, the
