

University Volley Team Is Defeated

Kahuku Aggregation Wins
Easily, 15-10, 15-2
In UH Gym

IN PREPARATION for the Territorial Volleyball championship tournament to be held May 10, 11, 12, the Kahuku Plantation aggregation last night played an exhibition game with the University of Hawaii in the University gymnasium.

Displaying brilliant form, the Kahukus who have improved with leaps and bounds, won decisively from the University, the score being 15-10, 15-2.

Magnete and Sanchez played well for Kahuku while Adolph Desha and Carmichael stood out for the collegians.

The Kahukus swept through the collegians in 10 minutes in the second set, which is some sort of a record.

On Sunday, the Kahukus defeated the Outrigger team in three sets, 12-15, 15-6, 15-10. The match was played on the Outrigger court.
