Joan Norton, also from the university. Your Manoa co-ed bested Betty Stevenson of Roosevelt high school to take the 100 yard freestyle (women open in 1 min. 9.1 sec., good time for a girl of her limited experience.

Betty Stevenson swam a strong furlong freestyle to capture first prize. At the finish line she was 13 yards ahead of second place winner, Katherine Bull of Waialua. Elvy Ridley of Roosevelt placed third. Miss Stevenson negotiated the distance in 3 min. 8 sec.

Barney Fung of Hui Makani took first honors in the 220 yard freestyle open from a strong field. He was four feet ahead of his teammate, N. Hamada. K. Kakuda of Nuuanu Y placed third. The winning time of 2 min. 23.8 sec. was 1.5 seconds faster than Fung's time in the trial heat Tuesday night. The Hui Makani merman, later in the night, lost a heartbreaker to Gilbert Ching in the 100 yard freestyle open. David is a member of the well known Fung family of swimming fame.

Special attraction of the evening's activities was an exhibition 50 yard freestyle race featuring the incomparable Duke Kahanamoku. Swimming against his brother, Sam Kahanamoku, and Gay Harris in a handicap race in which Duke swam scratch, the former Olympic aquatic champion reached the 50 yard mark in the creditable time of 26 seconds flat. Sam took second place.

Adolph Desha from the local varsity showed to advantage in his two pet events — the 220 yard breaststroke open and the 150 yard backstroke open. The Hilo boy won these two events impressively. He returned the furlong frog style with time of 2 min. 57.7 sec. and later took the 150 yard-backstroke in. 1 min. 47.6 sec.

Desha was an easy first in these two races. Besting second placer Shinkawa of Nuuanu Y in the furlong breaststroke by seven yards, Desha later cinched the dozal event with a four yard lead over another two man, D. K. Martin of Hui Makani.
