

Queen Surf Decides To Enter Races

Competition Slated For
Friday Afternoon
On Ala Wai

CREWS TRAIN HARD

Duke Kahanamoku Named Referee; Officials
Are Picked

LANES were drawn for the outrigger paddling regatta slated for Friday, Kamehameha Day, on the Ala Wai canal at a meeting of the regatta committee of the Kamaaina Beachcombers' Hui yesterday afternoon.

Separate drawings for lanes were held for the different events.

It was announced yesterday that a fourth club has entered the regatta. It is the Queen Surf and it will have powerful crews in all the events.

The original entrants are Outrigger Canoe Club, Hui Nalu and Matson A. C.

Training is being held by all the crews every day on the Ala Wai and it goes without saying that they will be in excellent condition when they line up to answer the starter's gun.

All races will finish in front of the new boat house near the street car bridge and the first event will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Officials were also selected at yesterday's meeting, Duke P. Kahanamoku will be the referee.

Lanes drawn for the five canoe races follow:

Junior Four-Paddle Canoe Men—
Lane 1, Matson; 2, Hui Nalu; 3, Out-rigger; 4, Queen Surf.

Senior Six-Paddle Canoe Men—
Lane 1, Queen Surf; 2, Matson; 3,
Hui Nalu; 4, Outrigger.

Junior Six-Paddle Canoe Men—
Lane 1, Outrigger; 2, Queen Surf; 3,
Matson; 4, Hui Nalu.

Six-Paddle Canoe Boys Under 17—
Lane 1, Hui Nalu; 2, Outrigger; 3,

(Continued on Page 11)