

OUTRIGGER WINS CANOE REGATTA OVER HUI NALU

Scores 37 Points — Hui Nalu Annexes Senior Six Event By Few Feet From Rivals After Hard Race On Canal

OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB triumphed in the canoe paddling regatta yesterday on the Ala Wai canal which was banked by a large assemblage of spectators.

In the men's events, Outrigger score 37 points as against 22 for Hui Nalu, seven for Queen Surf and three for Matson. The Outrigger women paddlers won from the Honolulu Girls. They scored 12 points and Honolulu four.

Close races featured all the events.

Although they finished second to Outrigger in the regatta, Hui Nalu annexed the feature events of the day. In perfect coordination the Hui Nalu crew paddled and virtually flew over the placid waters of the canal to win by a few feet from an equally great crew wearing the colors of the Outrigger Canoe club. The winning time for the mile course was 7 minutes 15.8 seconds.

Rowing on the Hui Nalu crew were Walter Love, Ah Kong Pung, Dan Aona, Wilfred Paul, Tony Morse, and John Ernstberg.

WINS JUNIOR EVENT

Hui Nalu also won the junior six race over the mile course, the time being 7 minutes 45.2 seconds. Again they barely defeated an Outrigger crew. The Hui Nalu boat was manned by Allen Love, Adrian McPherson, Jimmy Ing, Joe Davis, "Dark Cloud" Kaalhue, and Richard Boetcher.

However, later in the day, Outrigger came back to win the senior four event in 8 minutes 31.5 seconds. A. E. Minville, Robert Dolan, Kirk Lyser, and Sally Hale comprised the crew that defeated the Hui Nalus.

Outrigger also triumphed in the Junior 4 event defeating Hui Nalu. In the winning boat were Sargent Kahanamoku, Mel Paoa, Fred Wilhelm, and Sam Kahanamoku. They crossed the finish line in the mile in 8 minutes 1 second.

A DEAD HEAT

In one of the most exciting races of the afternoon, the Honolulu Girls and the Outrigger Girls paddled to a dead heat. The race was over one-half mile, the time being 4 minutes 43.6 seconds. Honolulu crew was comprised of E. Norton, K. Kekahuna, M. Scott, T. Ludewig, H. Fuller, and C. Simmons. The Outrigger crew was made up of M. Plooy, K. Maertens, M. Hauston, I. Hapai, O. Clarke, and B. Schlieff.

Surfboard races were also held. In the half-mile race for men, Molokai Horner triumphed in the time of 7 minutes 12.3 seconds. In the women's quarter-mile event, Dot Hammond emerged the winner, her time being 3 minutes 59.2 seconds. The mile relay went to Outrigger. The time was 6 minutes 45.2-5 seconds.
