

Brilliande Named

(Continued from Page 13)

spread publicity for Hawaii and bring about greater prestige for the Islands. "Up to now, yachtsmen of national and international repute have known Hawaii only as one end of a periodic oceanic yacht race," he said.

Many among the greatest yachting, boating and fishing minds have been brought together to aid in the planning of the regattas.

ADVISORY BOARDS SELECTED

Heading the yachting advisory board is Harold G. Dillingham, local sportsman and one-time winner of the Trans-Pacific Yacht Race. Aiding him will be Herbert Dowsett, Rear Commodore P. G. H. Deverill, Commodore C. W. Dickey, Harry Uhler and Commodore Glen G. Mitchell.

Charles M. Cooke III is chairman of the cruiser advisory board, upon which also serve Joseph Stickney, E. J. Galusha, Walter Barney and Sam Wight.

Chairman of the fishing advisory board is John Waterhouse. Assisting are Joseph Bekstrom, Arthur W. Hodgins and H. D. Sloggett.

The outboard advisory group consists of Louis Abrams, chairman; Charles McWayne, William Cox, Bennett Lovell and Harry Lu.

Robert P. Sawtelle heads the rowing advisory board with Charles Crane, Harry Evensen and Commander William Forrestel assisting.

CAIN IS COURSE HEAD

Chairman of the course advisory board is Louis Cain. Assisting him are James Friel, Stanley Wright and Commander Frank T. Kenner.

Irwin Spalding is serving as chairman of the trophy advisory board. Also serving are Senator Joseph Farrington, Stanley Kennedy, Milton Holst, Arthur Achors, George Angus, Edwin Bolles, Duke Kahanamoku and Sanford Platt.

The rules advisory board is under the wing of Commodore Clarence Macfarlane. His assistants are Herbert P. Sawtelle, Hart Wood, Jr., H. W. B. White, William Cartwright, Jr., and Dudley Pratt.

The records advisory board is administered by Mrs. L. Fullard Leo, with Clarence Olds and Hugh Howell assisting.

George (Dad) Center, beloved public water sports figure, is serving as chairman of the outrigger advisory board, upon which also serve Sam Fuller, Charles Amalu and David Kahanamoku.

Duke Kahanamoku administers the Hawaiian Marine Sports advisory board. Aiding him are T. (Pump) Searle, Walter J. Macfarlane, John Kaupiko, Elmer Lee and Charles Lambert.

Walter J. (Doc) Adams heads the publicity advisory board, upon which also serve Don Watson, Harold Coffin, Red McQueen and Andrew Mitsukado.

A ladies committee is being formed with Mrs. C. J. Allenbaugh as chairman.