DUKE'S STATUE FUND

To Commemorate the Living Ideals of Clean Sportsmanship Exemplified by Hawaii's Beloved Swimmer

Duke P. Kahanamoku

THE MAN—1937

WE BELIEVE YOU WILL AGREE -- THIS IS A WORTHWHILE PROJECT!
LET'S ALL KOKUA!

Duke P. Kahanamoku, world-famous Hawaiian athlete and four-times Olympic swimmer, has set a life-time example of devotion to Hawaii Nei and to the ideals of clean sportsmanship and fine manhood. This all will agree. What then could be more fitting than to perpetuate a living symbol of Hawaii's athletic prowess and Hawaii's noblest characteristics in a beautiful bronze statue to be erected at Waikiki? Let us all in Hawaii thus show our appreciation to a great man while he is smiling and alive among us, and show that we believe in all that the Duke stands for.

This idea for a statue fund is entirely our own and the Duke knows nothing about it until he reads this announcement.

"Duke's Statue Fund" depositories have been set up throughout the Islands as listed below. "Team Captains" in your immediate neighborhood will call on you with their books to identify them and to receive your signature and your contribution for the fund. The drive is formally opened today. Let's all kokua and make this project a success such as shall send Hawaii's name echoing through the entire world as one land that remembers and appreciates the worthy deeds of its sons!

If You Admire the Duke as a Man, As An Athlete, and Appreciate What He Has Done For Hawaii Nei, Contribute To This Fund Now At Your Nearest "Fund Depository"

PLACE FUND CONTRIBUTIONS WITH YOUR NEAREST BANK OR NEWSPAPER ON ANY ISLAND.

All banks on Kauai, Oahu, Molokai, Maui, Hawaii, Lanai and all newspapers on these Islands have volunteered to accept contributions and to turn them over to our "Duke's Statue Fund" Treasurer, George Fuller, vice president, Bank of Hawaii, Honolulu.
