

Henry C. Brown, grounds superintendent of the Kokokahi camp of the YMCA, who was born a Connecticut Yankee 70 years ago today. He was principal of the Waimea school, Kauai, five years, and moved to Washington, D. C., where he was a YMCA secretary 12 years. Returning to the territory in 1930, he was manager of the Outrigger Canoe club four years.