

Trials Slated In 5 Events Sunday Morn

Elimination Races Will Start 8:30 At War Memorial Natatorium

OLYMPIANS TRAIN

Outdoor Swimfest To Be Held Next Wednesday And Friday

WITH the trials scheduled for Sunday morning at the War Memorial Natatorium, entries for the first annual Duke P. Kahanamoku swimming meet were announced late yesterday. Entries were received from all the leading swimmers of Oahu and also from Maui and Kauai.

The meet which will be held August 18 and 20 will be featured by the appearance of the Olympic Club natators of San Francisco, who were invited here by the Kamaaina Beachcombers' Hui, sponsors of the meet.

Trials will be held in five events Sunday morning at 8:30. They are events in which more than 12 entries have been received. They are the 50 yards freestyle for men novice, 50 yards freestyle for men open, 100 yards freestyle for boys under 16 years of age, 50 yards freestyle for boys under 13, and 100 yards backstroke for men novice.

TRIALS SUNDAY 8:30

Officials are requested to report at the tank at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. If they are not able to be present, they should notify Searle immediately. Trials will start at 8:30.

The Olympic Club swimmers arrived Thursday morning on the Lurline. They come here with impressive records. They are determined to win the championship of the first Kahanamoku Outdoor meet.

They will participate in intercollegiate events only. They started training yesterday and will undergo strict training the next couple of days. It will not be necessary for them to participate in the trials.

The Maui swimmers, 13 strong, arrived yesterday morning. They are making their headquarters at the Army and Navy Y. The Kauai natators will be here Sunday.

Because the tank is 110 yards long,

(Continued on Page 9)