

Trials Set For Diving and Century Service Mix

Classy Field to Compete In Big Meet Scheduled For Natatorium

By WILBUR CRAW

VICTOR LIGDA, games committee chairman of the Hawaiian A. A. U. announced yesterday that there would be trials for the Hawaiian Open championship swims that are to be held Saturday at the Natatorium. The trials will be held Friday at 4:30 at the Natatorium for the 100 meter Service and the platform diving for men, Hawaiian championship event.

Chairman Ligda also released the entries for the final title swimming meet to be held this year.

Among the swimmers noted in the lineups are Kapua Harris, winner of the 220 backstroke H. C. for men, Cecily Cunha, winner of the 440 yards freestyle for women H. C., Alvarez, spring board title holder H. C., Mildred S. Hooper, winner of the 100 meter freestyle for women H. C., Tannerhill, the army flash and Waidlich, his team mate.

GREAT RACE, THIS

Entered in the 220 yards for women are Cecily Cunha and Mildred Slight Hooper. It is needless to say that this race will be the classic of the day. Both Cecily and Mildred are strong swimmers and the race will amount to a grudge swim as Mildred will start with the sting of last Saturday's defeat and Cecily will start with the knowledge that Mildred will have to be carried from the tank before she lets defeat get the best of her.

In the trials, the number of swimmers in the service event will have

(Continued on Page 7)