There was talk the other day of a possible luau and a dance to be given by the Outrigger Canoe club to celebrate their victory at the regatta last Saturday. In which event the Hui Nalu and the Queen Surfers may not participate. "What!" we can hear Charlie Amalu, skipper of the Queen Surfers, besides the boys of the Hui Nalu war whoop from way down the Tavern direction: "Don't we rate?"

"Sure you do," we whoop back. That was only "a catch" to make you yell, we knowing all too well that you like your luaus.

Hoomanawanui Charlie. We're not sure yet.
