

SURFRIDER OF WAIKIKI

By "TYPHOON" SPENCER

Well, more fish — and turtles, too — 24 uhus, averaging five pounds each, and one turtle, weighing 30 pounds, that "Uhu" Minvielle and his senior, "Capt." Hale, "Robin Hood" Janda and a new one in this fishing business, Henry Duvauchelle, caught last Sunday, while spear fishing off the entrance of Pearl Harbor (no pearls there, Mister!).

The weather was excellent that day, the ocean calm, the sun bright, the water so crystal clear that even the manos, heaving into sight, so pliqued "Robin Hood," who was at the bow of the motorized canoe, that he let fly with his spear. But by the time he got ready the shark dove, which so burnt him up that he's going to get this same shark the next time he goes out there—ma-hay-be.

Of course there was the captain's mascot, too, "Teddyboop," a little doggie, that must have brought them all the luck.

They looked like a bunch of pirates when they came in—"Uhu" and his old man with their big pa-pales; the captain in all his regalia; Henry with a funny looking sort of helmet, and "Robin Hood" with the feather in his cap.

Forgot to mention that they caught 13 uhus at the same place the Sunday before, but as that was a bad luck number, they went back and got a lobster, which made it even.

The girls of the Outrigger Canoe club, Mildred Slaght Hooper and her sister, Gladys Slaght, went over the public baths course for a practice spin last Sunday in preparation for the coming swimming races held annually here every Thanks-writer is inspired to the extent that he will eat his hat if Clifford doesn't win.

Mel Peterson of the Eddie Bush trio is not only going surfing pretty soon, but he is going to broadcast Hawaii nei more romantically than ever, when he sings over the NBC network, November 17, for the dedicatory ceremonies of Radio City, New York, during its national radio hookup.

Not only he, but Eddie and Earl as well, besides Joe Bishaw, who all will do Hawaii's share of 15 minutes on this program, which will take place here at 1:30 p. m. of that date.

This is a scoop, or what-you-call-it, by golly!

Speaking of surfboard riding, there is one haole malihini who has turned kamaaina by now, who takes the cake. He became so interested in this art over a year ago, that now, even this rip-roaring, pearl-diving surrider (no cowboy!) has to gangway for him when he comes breezing along.

I mean Bill Cross, who, I hear, has a part in the play, "This IS New York!"

CAT CLUB MAY JOIN SOME NATIONAL GROUP

There will be a meeting of the Honolulu Cat club this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Anthony, 1499 Alencastre Drive, St. Louis Heights, to consider the proposal to affiliate with one of the national organizations of cat fanciers and establish a local register for pedigreed animals.

The club was formed several weeks ago by Mrs. Mildred Joseph, who was chosen president. Enough members have already joined to in-giving Day.

"Mildred Hooper did better 'han her sister," says Tom Ellis, coach.

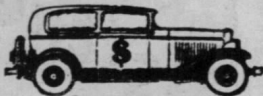

Dot Hammond, an excellent swimmer, is also entered in this race.

Curious to know what the other girls are doing. It's about time they started training. How about it?

Imagine our surprise, though, when who should we see but our own Clifford Gessler, who is entered in the three-quarter mile men's open from the public baths to the Outrigger Canoe club.

He decided to try his luck on a nonstop flight the other day, and did he do it? Ask Lindberg (or Tom Ellis), who said that Clifford's propellers were so strong and steady that Tom thinks he will have a good chance of winning this race.

The signs are so good that this
