

Moonlight Dance And Chowder Supper To Be Given By Canoe Club

Reservations are being made for the annual moonlight dance and chowder supper to be held at the Outrigger Canoe club, beginning at 4 p. m. December 1. Surfing will be enjoyed during the afternoon and evening and parties will be arranged by the directors, expert steersmen handling the boats.

A chowder supper will be served at 6 p. m. and will be followed by a moonlight dance on the pavilion to music by Sam Poepoe's orchestra. Toots Minevielle's crew will provide the food, chowder being made under the direct supervision of George D. Center.

Making arrangements are Messrs. Roy Banks, C. H. Dyer and Capt. E. W. Timberlake and reservations may be made by calling the Outrigger club, 91842. No tickets will be sold, admission being arranged at the door.

This is the first of a series of informal moonlight canoe-surfing parties planned by the club members.
