

SURFRIDER OF WAIKIKI

By "TYPHOON" SPENCER

The Outrigger Canoe club, desiring to stimulate a better esprit de corps among its members, is inaugurating a series of informal moonlight surfing, dancing and chowder parties that will begin Friday, December 1, at 4 p. m.

The music on this first occasion will be furnished by Sam

Poepoe's orchestra; food will be by "Toots" Minvielle's deadly spears and his famous triumvirate; chowder by the expert and direct supervision of George (Dad) Center; the moon, if any, by and under the kindly graces of God; the canoes and captains, a half a dozen of them, by us; with dancing to continue throughout the morning, perhaps, under the dining lanai.

Please tell your husband, wife and boy-friend—whatever you have, some motion pictures of surfriding as it is done at Canoe Surf, with Lois Phillips riding tandem on Frank Tellis's board and myself and "Tough Bill" Keaweamahi as the other principal stars of this big production.

While we were out there last Saturday, Bruce Cabot of motion picture fame, came out with Sam Kahanamoku to try his luck for the first time on a surfboard.
