

Swimming and football were two of the sports features on Honolulu's Thanksgiving Day program yesterday. The picture above at extreme left shows Mel Nicoll, general chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the McKinley-Black Foxe Shrine benefit game December 9, greeting Coach Reuel Heck of the Black-Foxe team when the mainlanders arrived here Thursday morning. The next picture shows Clifford Gessler, winner of the swimming race for men over 30 held at Waikiki Thursday morning as one of the feature events of the annual Outrigger Canoe club Thanksgiving Day swims. Next to him is A. E. (Toots) Minvielle, who won the Castle swim, blue ribbon event of the day. Miss Olga Clark, at left, in picture at extreme right, won the Public Baths swim for women and receives the wrist watch offered by The Star-Bulletin for the winner of the race. Mildred Slaght Hooper, who finished second, is shown with Miss Clark.—Star-Bulletin photos.
