

University Splashers To Compete At Waikiki

Castle, Cunha Swims Will Feature Program at Beach

MORE than 100 local swimming stars, representing the best of the Outrigger Canoe Club and the University of Hawaii swimming teams, will furnish the action this morning in the annual Thanksgiving Day swim at Waikiki.

As winner of the event in 1924, 1929 and 1932, "Toots" Minvielle will be favored to take the senior men's one-mile Castle swim that will feature the morning's program. Wilbur Craw and James Hurd, varsity stars from Coach "Pump" Searle's University team, are the leading entrants
