and a hard fight for first place is expected. The army is banking on Tannehill to come through, while the civilians look for Harris, and Craw to top their service rival. Irrespective of who wins, the 500 freestyle should be the feature race of the evening.

Another close race should result when Miss K. Powlison, and Rose Shimamura of the Citywide A.A., Mrs. Mildred S. Hooper, Gladys Slaght and Anne Delaney of the Outrigger Canoe Club clash in the 100-yard breaststroke Hawaiian championship for women.

The feature race of the evening for women is the 220-yard freestyle Hawaiian championship. Olga Clarke, who returned last year from the Mainland where she hung up a good record, is entered in this event. She will be pitted against Mrs. Hooper, Gladys Slaght, Jean Pope, M. Morse and K. Bull.

The following events will be staged tonight:

100-yard backstroke novice for women, 100-yard freestyle for boys under 16, 200-yards relay open for women, 300-yards medley relay novice men, 200-yards relay open, 220-yards freestyle novice men, 100-yards breaststroke Hawaiian championship for women, 300-yards medley junior men, 100-yards breaststroke junior men, 100-yards breaststroke novice men, diving, 500-yards freestyle Hawaiian championship, 220-yards freestyle Hawaiian championship for wo-
