

Senior Vollists In Pair Of Hot Games Tonight

Two red hot senior A. A. U. volleyball games are on tap this evening at the Central "Y" courts and some thrilling slamming should be witnessed.

Making their 1934 debut will be the University of Hawaii and Vagabonds of Central "Y" in the opening fray at 7:30 o'clock.

The Palamas and Outrigger Canoe club, the latter winner over the strong Citywide team on Monday, clash in the nightcap.

There's little to choose between the Rainbows and the Vagabonds in the opener, the two teams being so evenly matched.

Anxious to redeem themselves for Monday's setback at the hands of the Aloha Amateurs, the Palamas will make a great effort to nose out the Outrigger sextet. And that means a battle royal will result.

Admission to the games have been fixed at 10 cents and 25 cents by the committee headed by A. A. Kempa.
