

SENIOR SLAM CONTESTS FOR THIS EVENING

The Senior A. A. U. Volleyball league, which commenced last week before a spirited crowd, continues tonight at the Central Y. M. C. A. floor with a doubleheader.

In the initial game the Outrigger Canoe club team meets the Vagabonds. The finale will be played by the defending champion Aloha Amateur slammers against the University of Hawaii.

Both games should be hotly contested. The opener starts at 7:30 p. m. The Aloha Amateurs are reported to be very capable of defending the crown and will present almost the same team that graced the floor to victory last year.
