the once over. And when the boss is on hand, you should see the boys move around!

DAD DRIVES SENIORS

The Outrigger seniors have also been taking plenty over the last several days after looking none too good to Coach Center in a rub against the Hui Nalu juniors late last week.

So far Willie Whittle's Queen's Surfers have not picked up any of their rivals. They are working and racing among themselves. Coach Whittle expects to have his crews selected by Wednesday, after which they will work on some of the fine points of paddling until next Wednesday's races.

In the meantime, the dance committee is getting everything in readiness for the big dance Saturday night. Tickets are on sale at $1 a couple which includes refreshments. Sam Poepoe's orchestra will play for the occasion.
