

BAER COINING IN THE JACK

HARRY BRAND, official at 20th Century in Hollywood and a keen follower of sports, writes me that it will be quite a stretch before Max Baer, new heavyweight champion, fights again, onaccounta the great one is making so much easy money that it will take more than the Garden can presently offer him to get him out for the other match that his contract calls for. A whole gang of stage appearances and a lotta other unfinished business is to be taken care of first.

Baer is presently getting $6000 a week for a vaudeville engagement in New York. After that he intends to barnstorm with his kid brother, Buddy Baer. Then he has a ten weeks' stage contract in California at $10,000 a week.

He recently accepted the presidency of a manufacturing firm which will use his name for $50,000 a year. And what with flattering offers from movie producers for another picture, it looks like a long wait before the champ defends his title.

PADDLERS RESUME TRAINING

AFTER a brief respite following their fourth of July races, local paddlers resumed training for the big Kona program, last week.

This week they will pick up the cadence with both the boys and girls engaging in daily workouts right up to the time they leave for Kona.

Arrangements have been made by Outrigger officials to house their canoes at Ala Moana Park and the Hui Nalus are expected to follow suit. This will eliminate loss of time each afternoon paddling down from the beach.

All plans for the regatta are set. The program will be the same as last year with the majority of the events over a two and a quarter mile course.
