

Hui Nalu

(Continued from Page 12)

flooded with reservations.

CREWS HARD AT WORK

In the meantime crews from Kona, Molokai and this island are hard at work in preparation for the races. The Outrigger, Hui Nalu and Queen's Surfers, local clubs, are staging brisk workouts daily on Ala Moana channel. All crews are being sent over three-mile courses each afternoon and are rapidly reaching top form.

While none of the coaches have would pay the tourist bureau well to buy them off. I know at least a dozen people who have taken them seriously." That's hard to understand because I believe they were exceptionally well treated during their stay. You just can't please everybody.

selected their definite lineups, the majority of them have hit upon fast combinations and are devoting long hours daily, applying the finishing touches. Many changes have been made in the lineups used in the Fourth of July races.