

Off Waikiki the President will be greeted by a colorful Hawaiian water pageant which is being arranged under the direction of F. Lang Akana and which will feature the best musical talent in the Islands as well as practically every outrigger canoe available on Oahu.

CANOES TO FORM LANE

Single and double canoes will form a line of honor through which the Houston will pass and as she steams up to the fairway of the harbor the canoes will keep pace with her with the famous five paddle stroke of the ancient Hawaiian warriors. Every paddler and participant will be appropriately dressed in the feather cloaks of ancient Hawaii and the spectacle will be one of the most unique ever attempted in the history of the islands.

Sampanns will also go off port to welcome the Houston as she steams along Waikiki it was announced yesterday by Akana.
