

MORE PADDLERS OFF TOMORROW

Girls Go Friday; Local Boatloads In Fine Shape and Confident of Wins

In first class shape and confident of victory, 25 canoe paddlers of Oahu, including their coaches, sailed shortly after 12 noon today on the Humuula for the second annual regatta at Kealakekua bay, Kona, this Saturday morning.

The party consisted of the senior crews of the Outrigger Canoe club, the Hui Nalus and the Queen's Surfriders. The coaches accompanying the oarsmen are Gay Harris, John D. Kaupiko Sr. and Willie Whittle, respectively.

At 6 a. m. tomorrow, the second contingent from Honolulu will depart on the coast guard cutter Itasca. The remaining men crews of the three mentioned clubs above will board this boat.

On Thursday on the Humuula the two Honolulu women boatloads leave. The fair ones are going as guests of George Brown.

Pick Up Molokai Crews

All the paddlers are making Keauhou their headquarters.

Besides taking the remaining men crews from Honolulu, the Itasca will pick up Coach Theodore (Pump) Searle and 20 Molokai huskies at Kaunakakai Tuesday.

Oahu oarsmen who departed today are:

Hui Nalus—Coach John D. Kaupiko Sr., Melvin Paoa, Ah Kong Pang, John Kamana, Andy Lambert, Steve Pleasanton, Sam Kananamoku and John D. Kaupiko Jr.

Outriggers—Joe Fette, Wilbur Craw, George Bates, Charles Bates, J. H. Johnson Jr., Mark Westgate, Richard Beckert, William Ryan, A. E. Minvielle.

The Program

As announced in The Star-Bulletin Saturday, the program of the regatta will be:

1. Men's junior four.
2. Men's senior two.
3. Men's senior six (blue ribbon event).
4. Men's junior six.
5. Women's senior six.
6. Men's senior four.

It is estimated that two hours will be required to stage the races, thus finishing at 11 a. m.

The Honolulu crews are expected to be back in town by Sunday evening.

Indications point to tremendous interest in the regatta. The Inter-Island officials reported that the Waialeale is nearly booked full. However, there still are a few accommodations.
