

PREPARED FOR IT

All this, according to reports from Kaimuki, the Saints are prepared to meet.

Both coaches, Billy Wise of Kamehameha and Noble Kauhane of St. Louis, have announced their starting lineups for the game and they are as follows:

Pos. Kams	Saints
C—Anuheia .....	Harper
G—Nakapaahu .....	Chiswick
G—Eaton .....	Williams
T—Maby .....	Carter
T—Toomey .....	Fretias
E—H. Cockett .....	DeMello
E—F. Cockett .....	Pacheco
Q—Dunn .....	Peters
H—Kahapea .....	Davis
H—C. Mahoe .....	Almeida
F—Boyd .....	Harvey

crete bleachers of the Waikiki pool and as they thoroughly enjoyed the compet, they are all expected to return, bringing one, two, or more friends with them, this evening.

The following is the order of events:

- 50-meter breaststroke, girls 13 years of age.
- 800-meter freestyle open, women, Hawaiian championship.
- 100-meter freestyle novice, men.
- 50-meter freestyle novice, women.
- 50-meter freestyle open, men.
- 100-meter backstroke, men.
- 100-meter backstroke open, women, Hawaiian championship.
- 100-meter freestyle novice, women.
- 300-meter individual medley open, men, Hawaiian championship.
- 500-meter freestyle novice, men.
- 100-meter breaststroke junior, men.
- 400-meter relay for Citywide playground, men.
- 400-meter relay junior, men.
- 400-meter relay open, women.

2nd Hawaiian

(Continued from Page 14)

are slated to be staged this evening and both of them will be for women. They are the 800-meter freestyle and the 100-meter backstroke.

In the 800-meter compet Olga Clarke, the outstanding woman swimmer of the Territory, should win, but she will be pressed hard throughout the eight laps—the natatorium is 100 meters long—by Gladys Slaght and Jean Pope, her teammates from the Outrigger Canoe club; Margaret Morse of the Citywide Athletic association, and Rachael Howland of the University of Hawaii.

CLOSE RACE HERE

The 100-meter dorsal swim should be a hard fought race and provide the fans with plenty of thrills. Vying for honors in this event will be Olga Clarke, Gladys Slaght, Mildred Slaght Hooper, Betty Stevenson, A. Delaney of the Outrigger Canoe club, V. Lewis of the 40 and 8, M. Karatti of the Citywide A. A. and Rachael Howland of the University of Hawaii.

Besides the three Hawaiian championship events, eleven novice, junior and open events will be held.

In the first meet last Friday night more than a thousand fans perched themselves on the con-

Trio of Huskies

(Continued from Page 14)

matched as shown in the foregoing.

Johnson is slightly bald and wears a Van Dyke beard. He is an old and experienced hand at the grappling game and claims to have met many of the real tough heavyweights.

Arsan is a middleweight who has appeared in California and the northwest, while "Doc" Bursan hails from McKeesport, Pa., and claims Pittsburgh as his home city.

The main bout will show "Tiger" Miller and Rubberman Higami. Miller has quit the Auditorium and gone over to the Stadium. He is the grappler who started the fireworks in Manuel Calhau's sports arena last Tuesday night.

Nobody locally has a line on the newcomers, but Matchmaker Ed Ratsch states they are good performers and know all the tricks of the trade.